arranged that the city can get what she may want. If the ground is not wanted for park purposes I think that clause can be arranged under certain conditions. It the grounds were to be converted into cot-ton factories or something of that kind right now the clause providing for the park purposes could not be obliterated. Five years from now changes might possi-bly occur which would not be observed. The truth is the stockholders of the Pied-mont company are ready and willing to make any concessions or agreement that is hat she wanted The truth is the stockholders of the Pied-mont company are ready and willing to make any concessions or agreement that is right or equitable." Mr. Spalding then spoke of the right the Cotton States people had in the matter on account of the buildings on the grounds. Mr. Dimmock regretted that the full com-mittee was not present so that something definite could be done. Mr. Spalding said that he was willing to purchase of redunt parts of the first conferred for a half hour yesterday with representatives of the Piedmont park peo-ple. The special committee named by Mayor King is composed of Mr. Dimmock, chair-man, and Mr. Hirsch and Mr. Tolbert, all of the board of aldermen, and Mr. Miller and Mr. Maddox, of the council, the first one of the last two named being the senior member from the fourth, and the other being the junior member from the second ward. Two of the members Mr. Hirsch and Mr. Maddox, were not present. When Mr. Dimmock callet the meetung to order Mr. Jack J. Spalding, Mr. Joseph Thompson and Mr. Walker were scated around the table. Mr. Dimmock briefly ex-plained that the meeting had been called for the purchase of the Piedmont park grounds by the city at the price given in the papers drawn when Atlanta was giv-er an option on the grounds by the com-pany at the price named. Mr. Dimmock then asked if the committ-tea," said Mr. Dimmock, "absent--Mr. Hirsch and Mr. Maddox." "It won't do any hurt to hear from the gentlemen," remarked Mr. Tolbert. Mr. Spalding was given the floor and un-rolling a map of the park grounds stated that the park people were anxious to dis-pose of the matter. Mr. Spalding then briefly and correctly repeated the condi-tions of the contract which had been en-tored into between Atlanta and the owners of the ground. He showed the manner in which the Piedmont company had given the incorporators of the Cotion States and International Exposition Company an op-tion on the ground for figures named in consideration of. noney advanced and how that option was the property of the city. "Now," said Mr. Spalding, "if the con-otions laid down in that paper are not thoroughly satisfactory the Piedmont peo-ple are willing to do anything that will be reght in the matter. If the city does not want all the ground I think it can be so
