

Mrs. Hughes Spalding Will Be Hostess At Beautiful Tea

An interesting affair of Tuesday, May 12, will be the lovely reception at which Mrs. Hughes Spalding will entertain at her home on Peachtree road.

The spacious home will be beautifully decorated with cut flowers. The tea table, overlaid with a real lace cover, will have as its central decoration a low mound of spring flowers in pastel shades. Dorothy Perkins roses will be used on the tea service.

Receiving with Mrs. Spalding will be her three charming sisters, Mrs. LeRoy Percy, Mrs. J. M. Billings, and Mrs. Malcolm Fortson, also Mrs. William Schroeder, of Albany, Ga. Assisting in entertaining will be Mrs. George McCarty, Jr., Mrs. Henry Newman, Mrs. Clarence Haverty, Mrs. Ethelyn Eminons Johnson, Mrs. Floyd McRae, Jr., Mrs. Westerfelt Terhune, Mrs. David C. Black, Mrs. Marion Smith, Mrs. Earnest Dallis, Mrs. Daniel McDougal, Miss Nellie Hightower, Miss Mae Haverty, Mrs. J. G. Oglesby, Mrs. Alfred Kennedy, Mrs. Andrew Calhoun and Mrs. Phinizy Calhoun.

K. O. X. Club Will Give Picnic.

A picnic will be given by the K. O. X. club today at Stone mountain. The members are requested to meet at the Civic club rooms at 2 p. m. Automobiles will be there to carry the crowd to the mountain.

The chaperons are Mr. and Mrs. Sefton Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Witherspoon, and Mrs. Swan Burnett. The guests include Miss Helen Witherspoon, Miss Betty Hadley, Miss Louise Powell, Miss Isabel Montgomery, Miss Mercedes Walker, Miss Marion Huber, Miss Amy Witherspoon, Miss Helen Boardman and Miss Ruth Boardman, Jack Pool, John Drewry, Murray Howard, Louie Mitchell, Evans Hall, Jr., Frank McMullin, Edgar Thompson, Dean Rusk, John Dozier, George Rawling and John Landers.

Mrs. Haverty

Is Honor Guest.

Among the lovely events on Friday's social calendar was the bridge-tea at which Miss Ethel Niall was hostess at her home on Moreland avenue, honoring Mrs. Rhodes Haverty, a recent bride.

Mrs. W. A. Niall assisted her daughter in entertaining.

Tea was served following the bridge game from a daintily-appointed table and the rooms where the guests were received were adorned with a variety of gaily-colored spring flowers.

Among the guests present were Mrs. Haverty, Mrs. Harold Cooledge, Mrs. Bryant K. Vann, Mrs. John Knox, Mrs. Bruce Woodruff, Mrs. Lon Grove, Mrs. William Huger, Mrs. Z. Clarke, Mrs. DeWitt Sinclair, Mrs. Clement Evans, Mrs. Nelson Niall, Misses Emmie Nixon, Margaret Nelson, Margaret Morgan, Donna Stone, Suzette Holmes and Ersline Jarnagin.

Mrs. Pickett Is Given Lovely Tea.

Among the first of the parties to be given for Mrs. Lollie Markham Pickett, who will leave soon for a tour of Europe, was the bridge-tea at which Mrs. Edward H. Barnes was hostess Friday at the Piedmont Driving club.

The game was played in the gray room of the club and tea was served at the individual tables which were attractively arranged with spring blossoms.