

Phinizy-Spalding.

Athens, Ga., February 3.—(Special.)

The social event of the week will be the beautiful wedding of Miss Bolling Phinizy and Mr. Hughes Spalding, of Atlanta, on the evening of Wednesday, February 7, at 8:30 o'clock, at 324 Milledge avenue.

The palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. Billups Phinizy will be a brilliant scene. While a home wedding, it will nevertheless be an elaborately planned and very beautiful occasion, and one of the most notable social events in the history of Georgia. Father Gunn, of Mississippi, will perform the ceremony. The attendants will be Mrs. Hammond Johnson, matron of honor; Miss Martha Phinizy, maid of honor; Miss Nellie Phinizy, first bridesmaid. The other attendants will be Miss Mattie Wilson DuBose, Miss Mary Gerdine, Miss Louise Phinizy of Augusta, Miss Marguerite Wright of Augusta, Miss Harriet Calhoun of Atlanta, and Miss Elizabeth Rawson of Atlanta. Little Miss Louise Phinizy flower girl; Mr. Jack Spalding, best man; the groomsmen, Mr. Tate Wright, Mr. Tom Fleming, Mr. Jackson Dick, Mr. Louie Wisdom, Mr. Albert Thornton, Mr. Jesse Draper, Mr. Otis Young and Mr. Winship Nunnally.

Miss Bolling Phinizy is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billups Phinizy, and has been a reigning belle in southern society, crowned with all the graces that have distinguished her family on both sides. Mr. Hughes Spalding is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spalding, of Atlanta, very prominent and popular socially and professionally, and one of the leading young lawyers of the south. The marriage of these young people will unite two very old and influential families, and their marriage is looked forward to with pleasurable interest.
