

SPALDING-SCHRODER WEDDING TO TAKE PLACE AT DEERLAND

---

The wedding of Miss Suzanne Spalding and Mr. William Schroder will be an event of brilliant social interest of Thursday, June 1.

It will take place at "Deerland," the beautiful suburban home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Spalding, on Peachtree road, and will be witnessed by a large company of friends, who will be entertained at a handsome reception.

Dr. J. E. Gunn will perform the ceremony, and the attendants will be: Miss Claire Ridley, maid of honor; Miss Agnes McEvoy of Baltimore, Misses Isabel Kuhrt, Marie Ridley, Martha Francis, Cobble Vaughn, bridesmaids; Mr. Fred Schroder, of Hendersonville, N. C.; Messrs. Claud Douthitt, Brutus Clay, Philip McDuffie, David Kirkland and Hughes Spalding, groomsmen.

A number of pretty parties will be given this week in compliment to Miss Spalding.

Monday afternoon, Misses May and Maud Haverly will entertain at bridge.

Tuesday afternoon, Miss Martha Francis will entertain at bridge.

Tuesday evening, Miss Lillian Logan will give a small bridge party.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Harry Chamberlin will entertain Miss Spalding and her bridesmaids at bridge.

On Thursday, Miss Carolyn King will give an afternoon bridge.